LNEA Public Speaking Diploma

Public Speaking Diploma: Level 6

General Objectives

The Licentiate Performer's Diplomas are designed to:

- Provide progressive training programs for prospective teachers
- Provide professional development and specialised training for existing teachers
- Provide a standard of training that is recognised by wider agencies
- Provide a relevant and challenging syllabus that encourages a high standard of knowledge, research and performance

Licentiate Teaching Diploma in Public Speaking

Successful Learners have the right to append LNEA after their names.

Learners for this examination must already have achieved the Grade 8 examination in Public Speaking and be at least 19 years old.

Learners are allowed two years from the date of the entry to their first Section to pass both elements.

Dissertation titles must be submitted with application to take the LNEA.

The fee for each Section is paid on entry for that Section; if either section is failed, a re-take fee is charged for each re-take Section.

Both sections of this examination must be passed. In the event of a failure to achieve the pass mark in one of the sections, a re-take must be taken within two years from the original entry date. If there is more than one re-take, these must be taken at the same session.

If success is not achieved within this time, the entire examination must be re-entered and both sections taken again at the full fee.

The examination consists of:

- Section 1 - A Practical session of approximately one hour.
- Section 2 - A Dissertation of 5000 words.
- 75 marks are required to pass in both sections

Preparation:

- The Examinations Director is happy to advise Learners on any aspect of this qualification.

Section 2 - The Dissertation (5000 words)

The Dissertation should have as its focus a significant aspect of the art and skill of public speaking, for example, the public speaking techniques of a speaker you particularly admire; audience awareness; voice production. Learners should submit proposed essay titles to Miranda Jacobs, Examinations Director, for approval before commencing work. The Dissertation should be presented in appropriate form:

- Cover Page should include the author's full name, qualification for which it is presented, date of submission and statement of Authentication from both Learner and Teacher
- Word Processed
- Times New Roman
- Size 12 font
- Single sided A4 pages
- One and a half line spacing
- Pages numbered
- All references and quotations acknowledged using the Harvard Referencing System
- Word count which excludes the content page, references, bibliography/webliography and Appendices.

It is expected that both the learner and the learner's teacher will verify in writing the authenticity of the Dissertation by completing a cover page available to download from the New Era website.

Plagiarism is defined as "The failure to acknowledge sources properly and/or the submission of another person's work as if it were the candidate's own." To prevent plagiarism, teachers should supervise a learner's work from beginning to completion so that they are well placed to verify the authenticity of a candidate's work and provide written assurance to New Era Academy, London. New Era reserves the right to disqualify a Dissertation in which there is evidence of plagiarism.
